THE CANADIANS.

They Take No Stock in the Harrison-Annexation Story,

AND HAVE NO DESIRE TO COME UNDER THE EAGLE'S WING.

OTTAWA, Ont., Nov. 26.—The announcement that President-elect Harrison would make the annexation of Canada a plank in his political platform is treated here as a canard.

Sir Hector Langevin, minister of public works, said to a correspondent that he discredited the whole story. What the views of Gen. Harrison might be regarding Canada he did not know; but he felt sure that Gen. Harrison would not, through the medium of a newspaper interviewer, outline his future policy. He was too politic a man for that.

"As regards the annexation feeling," said Sir Hector, "which is alleged to exist in Canada among a few disappointed politicians, I may say that the people of Canada, the solid men of the country, are perfectly satisfied with their present lot and have no aspirations in the direction of political alliance with the United States."

"Why," he continued, "we have had two elections for the Dominion parliament within the past eight weeks, and in both contests candidates who ran on the unrestricted reciprocity ticket were defeated by good majorities. One of these elections was held in Nova Scotia, where it was believed the commercial union or reciprocity cry was sure to win; but the candidates supporting those views met with an ignominious defeat. If the people of Canada will not accept half a dose of commercial union or unrestricted reciprocity, they are not likely to swallow the whole pill and go in for annexation."

The Hon. John Costigan, minister of internal revenue, said: "We have a country of which we or any people on the face of the globe ought justly to feel proud. Its developments within the past decade have been without parallel in the world's history, and we are going to take care of it."

Sir John Macdonald treats the annexation movement as a good joke, and did not believe President elect Harrison ever gave expression to the utterances with which he is credited.

BIG BASE BALL SALARIES.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The convention of base ball men has adopted a rule that knocks big salaries in the head. The maximum limit shall be $2,500. Just now $4,000 and $5,000 salaries are the rule for first-class players. Very probably the Brotherhood of Players will strike against this. Johnny Ward, the head of the Brotherhood, is in Australia. He gets $5,000, and as he is a brainy man, there will be music in the air when he returns and finds that his salary has been cut in two. Old timers like $10,000 Mike Kelly and Dunlap take no stock in the new rules. They do not appear to rely so much upon the Brotherhood for protection as upon the bad faith of the very men who adopted the amendment. It is estimated that a good who now receives say $1,500 over the new limit, may be able to sell an old uniform to his manager for the difference between the limit and his present salary.

Sporting Notes.

Hanson, of Detroit, has signed with Pittsburgh for $2,500.

Columbus seems to have the refusal of a place in the American Association.

Sullivan wants to fight any man in the world—Kilrain and Mitchell preferred.

Dempsey's backers insist that his fight be to a finish, and that the stake be $5,000 should he accept Mitchell's challenge.

The fixing of the maximum of players' salaries at $2,500 may cause a base ball strike in the spring. Much depends on what Ward, who is now on the Australian trip, says.

Jack McAuliffe, of Brooklyn, and Billy Myers, of Streator, Ill., have signed articles to fight to a finish for the light weight championship of America. The contest will take place next February.

Jimmy Carney, champion light weight of England, has challenged Jack McAuliffe, the American champion, to fight for $2,500 or $5,000 a side and the championship of the world, the fight to take place either in France or America.

Car Heating in Minnesota.

ST. PAUL, Nov. 26.—The Minnesota railroad commissioners are engaged in collecting information as to the methods of car heating on Minnesota railroads. Circulars are being sent out to the general managers of all the railroads in this state, as well as the leading railroads in other states. It is the present purpose of the commission to ask the legislature to establish a date beyond which the use of the common car stove shall not be permitted, and the managers of the roads are requested to name such a date as in their opinion would be most practicable and consistent with safety.

National Editorial Association.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 26.—The National Editorial association has decided to hold the next convention at Detroit, Mich., in August or September, 1889, the exact date to be fixed by the executive committee. The election of officers resulted as follows: J. N. Bennis, of Arkansas, president; R. D. Hicks, of Missouri, first vice president; N. B. McCormick, of Alabama, second vice president; L. P. Stanley, of Alabama, third vice president; William Kennedy, of Pennsylvania, and E. P. Fletcher, of Illinois, corresponding secretaries; A. H. Harry, of Illinois, treasurer.

OTHER OFFICERS.

Result of the Election at the Knights of Labor Convention.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 26.—After Mr. Powderly and Mr. Wheat had been elected general master workman and general worthy foreman, in the Knights of Labor convention, nominations for secretary-treasurer were in order. Mr. Powderly left the chair and nominated John W. Hayes, the present secretary. Frederick Turner, the present treasurer, was nominated by George Duncan, of Virginia. Mrs. Alzina P. Stevens, of Toledo, was nominated by W. G. F. Price. A resolution to vote on these nominations before adjournment had been passed, but owing to the hour the motion was reconsidered and the assembly adjourned until 3 p.m. without the vote.

Upon reassembling the vote was cast and resulted:

Hays, 83; Turner, 56; Mrs. Stevens, 3.

Mrs. L. M. Barry, director and investigator of woman's work, was re-elected by acclamation. General Master Workman Powderly was chosen to represent the order at the Paris exposition. After his re-election to office, Mr. Powderly took the hour, and stated that, although his salary had been left at $5,000, he would accept only $3,000, and at the end of his term the order could do what they pleased with the balance.

As candidates for members of the general executive board the general master workman presented the names of A. W. Wright, of Toronto, Ont.; J. J. Holland, of Jacksonville, Fla.; John Costello, of Pittsburgh; John Devlin, of Detroit; J. A. Wright, of Philadelphia; T. B. McGuire, of New York; H. C. Traphagen, of Cincinnati, and J. J. Crowley, of Charlestown, Mass. On the first ballot A. W. Wright, of Toronto; J. J. Holland and John Costello, of Pittsburgh, were elected.

Two more ballots were necessary to elect the fourth member of the board, John Devlin, of Detroit, being chosen.

The first ballot stood: A. W. Wright, 94; Holland, 8; Costello, 8; Devlin, 67; J. A. Wright, 38; McGuire, 54; Traphagen, 39; Crowley, 5.

Second ballot: Devlin, 56; J. A. Wright, 7; McGuire, 41; Traphagen, 10; Crowley, 21.

J. A. Wright withdrew, and the third ballot resulted: Devlin, 71; McGuire, 55; Traphagen, 4; Crowley, 5.

Retiring General Worthy Foreman Richard Griffiths, of Chicago, and Delwarte, of Belgium, were presented with fine gold badges by the general assembly, the receipt of which was acknowledged appropriately, Mr. Delwarte doing so in his choice French.

The administration likes the composition of the executive board and thinks it favorable to Powderly.

A prominent miner, that has several times caused a breeze in the assembly, said that the election of Costello, who is a miner, was thrown out as a sop which the miners did not propose to swallow, and it would result in more strained relations which might snap at Columbus on December 5. Costello is not liked by the miners on account of his connection with certain of their troubles.

CHINA'S FIRST RAILROAD

Eighty-One Miles Now in Daily Use in the Flower Kingdom.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 26.—Advices received here by the steamship Rio de Janeiro from China states that the first railroad in the Chinese empire was officially opened on November 9, when the viceroy traveled over the road for some distance. Eighty-one miles have been completed, from Tien Tsin to Lutai and Tongshan, with five miles of sidings and branches. The road will be extended to Pekin, and in time extended into southern and northwestern China.

GUNS FOR OUR NEW NAVY.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Capt. Zalinski was in consultation with the chief of ordnance yesterday about pneumatic guns for coast defenses. The American Gun company, of New York, Gen. Fitz John Porter, president, that is operating Leut. Graydon's pneumatic guns, and Admiral Ammen's war ram, are also in the field as competitors for furnishing these guns for both swift cruisers and for coast and harbor defenses. Drawings and specifications of their dynamite weapons of warfare have been submitted to Secretaries Whitney and Endicott as well as to the ordnance and fortifications board, of which Gen. Schofield is president. The army appropriation bill this year authorizes the expenditure of $400,000 for the purchase of dynamite guns, and the war department will soon advertise for proposals for furnishing them, and lively competition between the companies operating the Graydon and Zalinski guns is expected.

Ohio White Cap Warnings.

WINCHESTER, O., Nov. 26.—The White Caps visited Taylorsville and Mowertown, two small villages near Sardinia, O., and posted in conspicuous places notices of warning and threatening vengeance to any person or persons who may try to use their energy or influence against them or their order. Things are at white heat in all that part of the country, and the citizens are almost demoralized. Unless some steps are taken soon to put a stop to this work there will be serious trouble, and it is expected every minute.

Began Earlier than Usual.

MONTRÉAL, Nov. 26.—The extent of the damage to shipping caused by the recent snow storm and unprecedented cold weather is only now beginning to be known as the reports of disaster come in from the Gulf and Lower St. Lawrence. No less than nine sailing vessels are reported wrecked, and there are many others from which no reports have yet been received.

The Defalcation Growing.

LINCOLN, Neb., Nov. 26.—The failure of the state bank of Valparaiso, which occurred Tuesday, is even more serious than was at first anticipated. The unsecured liabilities run up to something like $100,000, and many eastern firms are sufferers. It is supposed that Scoville & Crafts, proprietors, have gone to Canada. Scoville's family is left penniless.

COLUMBUS, Neb., Nov. 26.—Albert Haunsdale, the man who murdered School Directors Roten and Ashley, at Cozad, Neb., November 9, afterward hiding the bodies in a hay stack, was captured in this city Friday. The prisoner admitted his guilt, but gave no reason for the murder.

WEEKLY REVIEW

OF THE CONDITION OF BUSINESS BY R. G. DUN & COMPANY.

FOR THE PAST WEEK IT HAS MADE FAIR PROGRESS.

And the Prospect for Further Improvement is Considered Good—Exports of Breadstuffs From Atlantic Ports Remarkably Light—Collections Satisfactory—Failures.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—R. G. Dun & Company's weekly review of trade says:

Business has made fair progress during the past week, and at most points the prospect for further improvement is considered good. The engagements of gold for export amount to $2,730,000 for the week. The immediate cause is not the state of merchandise trade. At present foreigners do not seem to regard American railways with the confidence formerly shown, in part because of their damaging competition, and in part because the effects of the interstate commerce act are thought serious. The stock market has declined an average of $1 per share.

The exports of breadstuffs from Atlantic ports have been only 130,372 bushels of wheat in three weeks, against 1,959,528 bushels last year, and 408,497 barrels flour, against 675,698 last year, with an increase of $30,000 bushels corn. Removal of duties in Portugal caused small shipments of wheat thither, but from other markets the current price still excludes Atlantic wheat, though the decline here has been four and a half cents for the week, with sales of 35,000,000 bushels. Corn and oats have scarcely changed. Pork and hogs are a shade lower, with lard stronger. No change appears in cotton. Coffee has advanced half a cent, with sales of 405,000 bags, and oil is practically unchanged, with refined a shade lower.

Business is satisfactory or improving at all northwestern points reporting, and money is in good supply, unless Cleveland, where some stringency appears, be reckoned an exception. Collections at all points seem fairly satisfactory. At Memphis trade does not improve, and dealers are more anxious about collections than about sales. The anthracite trade is dull and weak with demand slackening, and at Pittsburgh suspension of Monongahela mining to December 1 is attributed to obstructions on the river.

The coke trade is active, with more ovens building. Three companies have taken orders for 45,000 tons steel rails at $28 and other eastern mills have refused $27.50.

Bar iron is irregular in price, and southern sales of pig at the east are checked by unwillingness of railroads to guarantee present rates for the future. In the dry goods business there is comparative inactivity. The great activity and advance of about two cents in wool encourages hope that the trade in goods will improve, and some improvement is already seen in hosiery and in some light weight goods. Cottons are generally steady, with some discounting on wide sheetings; print cloths are unchanged. The boot and shoe trade improves, with leather irregular.

In the silk manufacture it is reported that the year's production equals $45,000,000 in value, about half the entire consumption. The treasury has paid out only $30,000 more than it has taken in during the week, and the interior demand for money has slackened. The exports for three weeks fall 4 per cent below last year's at New York, with imports 3 per cent. below, which points to a considerable excess of exports over imports for the month. But if foreign realization on American investments continues, the state of the merchandise trade will not prevent some outgo of specie.

The business failures of the week number 26, as compared with 237 last week, and 226 the week previous. For the corresponding week of last year the figures were 207.

STRIKING SWITCHMEN.

One Road Gives in at Indianapolis—Rumor.

That a Big Strike is Brewing.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 26.—The Indianapolis, Decatur & Western railway managers have conceded the demand of the switchmen of $2.70 a day for foremen, $2.50 a day for helpers, twenty six days of ten hours to the month, and pay for overtime; night men to get the usual $5 per month more than day men. The other roads hold out.

RUMORS OF A BIG STRIKE.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The World says: "Information reaches the World from an authoritative source that the switchmen on all the trunk lines from the Mississippi to New York have united in a demand upon the roads for an increase of pay and the settlement of other grievances."

ANOTHER EIGHT-HOUR MOVEMENT.

CHICAGO, Nov. 26.—A local paper says: "A new eight-hour movement among workingmen of Socialistic propensities has already begun, and meetings are being held in various places throughout the city for the purpose of electing delegates to the convention of the American Federation of Labor, to be held at St. Louis next December. At that convention the eight-hour movement will be taken up, and the advisability considered of organizing a mammoth strike, to go into effect in June, 1889."

MINE ACCIDENT.

A CAVE-IN CUTS THE WATER SUPPLY OF FROM WILKES-BARRE, Pa.

WILKES-BARRE, Pa., Nov. 26.—Three acres of the earth over Mineral Spring colliery, at Miner's Mills, caved in late yesterday afternoon, causing great damage. When the earth went down it carried with it the main pipe of the Wilkes-Barre Water company, which conveyed water from the reservoir to this city. The water from the reservoir then poured into the mine, flooding it in a short time. The miners had a narrow escape from drowning, but all were gotten out safely. The city's water supply is entirely cut off.

Near Hartford, Perquimans county, North Carolina, Henry Lowe, an idiot, had a violent turn because of not being allowed to vote, and shot and killed Matt Wood, with whom he was living. He fired at his brother also, but only broke his arm. He then attacked Mrs. Wood and children, but they escaped.

Horace Hovey, bank thief, known as "Little Horace," under the name of Henry Hunter, was arrested in Toronto for bungling a Scotchman. William Alexander was pulled with him. Part of their outfit was walking canes fixed with tweezers, by which they could reach over a bank counter and pick up a roll of bills.

SPEAKER CARLISLE will leave for Washington, D. C., sometime this week.

WOULDN'T it be a good idea for the various Democratic clubs throughout the country to keep up their organization? An army should never disband as long as it has an enemy to fight.

THOSE who staked money on 20,000 Republican majority in Ohio in the late contest are in the same box as those who bet on Cleveland's election. Harrison's official plurality in the Buckeye State is 19,599.

THE U. S. Treasurer reports the surplus revenues last year at over $111,300,000. Just that much taken out of circulation, where it is needed, and locked up in the treasury vaults. Is any stronger argument for a revision of our revenue system needed?

THE REPUBLICAN PAPERS who are demanding a "free ballot and a fair count" in the South should turn their attention to the manufacturers of the north. There is where they will find the most flagrant and outrageous intimidation of voters in all this fair land of ours.

IF the white Democrats of the South would just turn about and vote the Republican ticket—in other words turn the South over to the Republicans—the "negro problem" would never be heard of again. But it will be a cold day in summer when the Democrats do that.

THE LOUISVILLE TIMES intimates that the people of the North know no more about the negro of the South than a hog knows about a ruffled shirt. And yet such papers as the Commercial Gazette and Chicago Tribune, after reviling and abusing the South for years, have appointed themselves to solve the "negro problem."

THAT able free trader, the Courier-Journal, says that Lewis County gave Major Burchett a majority of one only. The election officers say it gave a majority of 282. But when the C. J. comes within 281 of being correct it is doing remarkably well.—Maysville Republican.

BURCHETT'S majority in Lewis is 363. This was announced days ago. The Republican comes within 101 of being correct but the C. J. is off 362.

GENERAL JOHN M. PALMER has withdrawn from the Grand Army of the Republic, his recent experience teaching him that a Democrat has no place in the affections of the organization. It is, in effect, merely a campaign machine of the Republican party, and none of its members have any respect for a Democrat who is silly enough to continue his membership in it.—Courier-Journal.

COMPLETE official returns have been received at Frankfort of the late vote in this State for President. They show the following:

Cleveland.....	188,552
Harrison.....	155,136

CLEVELAND'S majority..... 28,418. The majority is not quite so large as it was four years ago, but there's nothing in the result specially disheartening for Democrats. Kentucky is still true to her colors.

Religious Notes. England has twenty nine cathedrals. All the mission fields are calling for more workers.

St. Patrick's Cathedral, New York, after thirty years' building, is completed.

The Methodist Book Concern has issued 2,300 tracts in Bohemian, Danish, English, French, German, Italian, Spanish and Swedish.

The Southern Presbyterian Foreign Missionary Board began the year with $7,000 on hand, and the receipts to date are $8,000 ahead of last year's.

Protestants are pushing their principles in Utah. Since their entrance, twenty-three years ago, they have founded one Lutheran, two Baptist, fourteen Episcopal, five Congregational, eight Methodist and thirteen Presbyterian churches.

J. Hood, aged ninety-three years, was converted last week near Ironton. Believing that baptism was necessary, he insisted that the rites by immersion be administered to him, notwithstanding the fact that he was hardly able to stand alone. Accordingly Rev. John Shepherd, a Baptist divine, was called in and the aged man was taken to a creek near by where he was placed in a sheet with a good deacon holding each corner. The preacher then entered the water, followed by the deacons bearing the convert. When the proper depth was reached the usual ceremony was enacted, the four men burying the subject in the water at the proper time. Mr. Hood received no discomfort from his immersion, but is stronger and feels much better than usual.

Physical Education in France.

The leading minds of France have come to the conclusion that the national system of education is defective on its physical side, and efforts are now being made to acclimate cricket, football, rowing, and American baseball in French schools. A Very French Idea.

A very new and very French idea is the dining room wholly separate from the house, reached through a covered passageway and all over glass, and so shaped and finished that it can be turned into a tent upon the very smallest provocation of fine weather.—Chicago Herald.

Statistics of Dakota Territory.

Governor Church, of Dakota, estimates the population of that territory at 700,000, of whom one-third are foreign born. There are 1,883,132 acres of public land entered by settlers the past year, and final proof has been made on an equal amount.—Boston True Flag.

The World's Injustice.

Lunatics in England.

Great Britain is worrying about the rapidly increasing number of its lunatics. It appears that those supported by the government alone have grown to 75,000. It is attributed to the hurry of modern life.

A Fast Run.

The Skipper by the Light of the Moon Company arrived from Cincinnati this morning. They were obliged to charter a special train to bring them from Hamilton to Cincinnati in time to catch the steamer. The train probably made the fastest run ever made on the C. H. and D. road. The distance, twenty-five miles, was run in twenty-seven minutes. The engineer was an old and experienced hand, and he said he "never turned the wheels so fast before."

Our people should remember that Skipped is a very fast comedy, and those who do not attend will regret it.

Jumped the Track.

The Kentucky Central passenger train due here at 8 p. m. was delayed an hour or so Saturday evening by quite a serious accident six miles north of Paris.

The train left Paris a little late. Near Miller's Station the rear coach jumped the track, and, after bumping along over the ties a short distance, landed on its side in the ditch.

About thirty passengers were in the coach at the time, among them Mrs. A. H. Lewis and son and Mr. C. T. Brown and bride, of this city. None sustained serious injuries, but all received slight bruises except Mr. Brown. The coach caught fire shortly afterwards, but the blaze was promptly extinguished.

To-Night's Great Laugh.

There will be mirth, music, fun, song and dance in lavish profusion at the opera house to-night, and all who desire to pass a pleasant evening and exercise dull care, should not fail to be present and witness the many good things served up in that ne plus ultra of funny plays, "Skipped by the Light of the Moon," of which the Philadelphia Ledger says:

One might as well hope to successfully photograph a laugh as to describe "Skipped by the Light of the Moon." It simply and sublimely defies analysis. Its sole object is to raise a breeze, and the breeze which has been raised by it has got quite beyond control, and grown to an unmanageable magnitude of a cyclone. The most imperturbable nature goes down before it without a show of resistance, and everybody rolls and shakes and laughs.

Always the Case.

Editors are supposed to have an intuitive knowledge of all the local events that transpire in their counties, yet it is a deplorable fact that 99 items out of every 100 they get, are stumbled on by accident. Ask 500 men per day "What's the news?" and 499 of them will say: "Oh, nothing of interest." At the same time, if the pump handle is applied, for marriages, births, deaths, fires, accidents, personals, &c., there is scarcely a man but what can contribute an item of some kind. Always immediately after a paper is out, 400 persons are ready to remark: "see you didn't mention my sale of hogs, or that my grand-mother died with the whooping-cough in Missouri—why didn't you come to me and get the news?"—Bourbon News.

The Cincinnati Enquirer says: "Lev Steele, once a prosperous and influential theatrical man, but now the veriest wreck of a human being, was again arrested Friday, this time on suspicion of having attempted to pick the pockets of a couple of girls in the Emery Arcade. He was apprehended by Special Officer Howard and taken to Police Headquarters. An investigation developed that, while he had acted suspiciously, there was not any proof against him. He made a pitiful plea for his liberty, and was allowed to go by Colonel Deitsch with the promise that he would leave town."

Steele is known in this city, and is well connected. He became a slave to liquor years ago, and his downfall followed.

The show-boat New Sensation was sunk at Cincinnati a few days ago. The Enquirer says: "Chains were placed under her, and the boat swung up between two barges, and the tow-boat Comet started to tow it over to Willow Run Landing, on the Kentucky side, but in passing under the new Huntington bridge the chains broke, letting the boat down, and the cabin went one way and the bottom up another way. What became of the piano the fishes will tell."

GENERAL R. M. GANO, of Texas, was greeted by large audiences at the Christian Church yesterday, and last night there was one confession of faith. The baptism will take place after prayer meeting Thursday evening.

ANOTHER aspirant for honors at the approaching city election comes to the front to-day. Mr. Harry Taylor announces himself as a candidate for Clerk. It would be difficult to find a better man for the position, and his popularity and efficiency will no doubt insure him a walkover.

MR. C. T. MARSH and Miss Bertha M. Shaw, of Charleston Bottom, were quietly wedded in the parlors of the St. Charles Hotel at 11 o'clock this morning, in the presence of a few friends and relatives. Rev. E. C. Savage, of Dover, officiated. The couple left immediately afterwards on the St. Lawrence to spend a few days in the Queen City.

THE Lexington Leader reported Conductor James Dunn, of this city, seriously injured in the collision of two freight trains near Paris Thursday night, but Mr. Dunn arrived here Saturday afternoon all safe and sound. His train was not in the smashup. It was Mr. Dumbleton who was hurt. His injuries are serious and very painful but they are not considered fatal.

CHARLES E. Kincaid in a letter from Washington City to the Louisville Times has the following to say of a former citizen of Mason County: "Sam Walton, of Lancaster, Chief of Division in the First Comptroller's office of the National Treasury, is a Democrat of the deep-dyed-in-the-wool species, and he expects to die politically as far as officeholding goes soon after the Ides of March. He will, he thinks, engage in business here or in New York. He and other Kentuckians are interested in tobacco culture in Florida, and hope to realize easily. He tells me that they cut a crop of tobacco from the parent stalk in that climate every two months. They have now on hand a warehouse full of yellow leaf goods clipped at that rate."

The Peers of England Knocked
Silly by Queensland's Gall.

SHE REFUSES TO ACCEPT HER APPOINTED GOVERNOR.

Her Neighbors Support Her in the Stand Taken and the English Cabinet is in a Flutter in Consequence—A Pacific Cable Being Discussed—The Panama Canal Foreign Notes.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The amazement of the English hereditary legislators that any of the colonies should dare to have an opinion of their own in regard to the governors sent by the mother country to rule over them appears to increase, and the heirs of some of the noble lords may be suddenly elevated to the upper house if this shocking state of affairs continues.

The conduct of the Queensland people in informing the home government that they declined the honor of living under the sway of Sir Henry Arthur Blake, late of Newfoundland, has developed apoplectic symptoms in several worthy peers, and the prompt support accorded to their brother colonists by the most prominent men of New South Wales and other neighboring sympathizers has thrown the cabinet into a flutter.

Many conservative lords think they can trace the steady advance of Radicalism in England, to the decline of the old time port wine drinking and the introduction of cheap claret by that arch-enemy, Mr. Gladstone.

Sir Henry Blake having vested interests in office, as having filled one position with marked unpopularity and incurred the dislike of everyone under him, must of course be provided for, and the governorship of Queensland with its £5,000 per annum and appropriate pickings, would, it is thought, suit him very well. The inhabitants of that colony, however, met the nomination with such a vigorous protest that the government dared not insist upon the appointment, and it is now denied that he will even be inflicted upon Mauritius, which colony it was later stated he would misgovern.

Lord Canarvon's letter to the Times on the subject is a fine specimen of the old "this-really-won't-do-you-know" feeling held by him and his compatriots. The often threatened downfall of the British constitution will they consider be one of the least terrible results of thus yielding to the common herd, and Lord Knutsford is horrified by the assertion of the premier of New South Wales to the assembly that colonies should be informed in advance of the names of governors selected for them, thus giving them a chance to protest against objectionable persons, exactly the thing which Lord Knutsford would prevent them from doing. The remarks of the premier to the colonial assembly were probably not entirely uninfluenced by the conduct of Capt. Carrington, brother to the governor of that colony.

Australia, of course, has a due sense of her present and future importance, as have also the North American provinces, and the slighting assertion of a prominent statesman that India is of more value to the mother country than ten Australias or Canadas, may lead their inhabitants to reflect upon the comparative benefits and disadvantages of a continued subjection to England.

To Cable the Pacific.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The earl of Winchelsea presided at a conference of the representatives of the commercial and shipping houses of the country having interests in Australia and Canada.

The object of the meeting, as stated by the chairman, was to promote the Pacific cable project. It is generally known that the recent frequent breaks in the existing cables, and the promises of material assistance from Australia have influenced the government to adopt a more favorable attitude toward the scheme that was evinced at the colonial conference. A resolution was unanimously adopted by the meeting recommending the cable as a benefit to commerce during peace and a safeguard to the empire during war, and petitioning the admiralty to expedite the survey of the route.

The reports of the operations of the steamer Egeria confirm the previous accounts of the great depth of the Pacific in the line of the proposed cable.

It was stated at the meeting that the necessary imperial and colonial guarantees of $300,000 per annum is already practically assured, and that an early completion of the survey is alone needed to enable the project to proceed.

The Panama Canal.

LONDON, Nov. 26.—The Paris correspondent of the Chronicle telegraphs that M. De Lesseps, in the event of the Credit Foncier refusing to assist him in obtaining the Panama loan, threatens to publish an account of every step he has been forced to take in the course of the Panama crusade. The revelations will affect several members of the chamber of deputies.

De Lesseps in the judgment of many has at Panama dug a ditch in which the French republic itself is in danger of being buried. Relying upon the encouragement given the scheme by the government, millions have invested in the stock. Should the government withdraw its support, or should the canal prove mechanical or financial failure as is predicted, the present government, at least, will scarcely be able to maintain itself against the furor that will result, and a crisis must follow. The ex-agent of the Panama company, Martin, is opposing and De Lesseps is demanding a new loan, both under the same threat of showing to what extent great members of M. Flouquet's party in the chamber have been influenced by bribes.

The Pope Aids Austria.

ATHENS, Nov. 26.—Reliable advices from Constantinople state that the sultan has finally agreed to the joining of Bulgaria and Eastern Roumania, provided Prince Ferdinand renounces all designs upon Macedonia. This result is said to be due to the efforts of the Papal Nuncio, who made a tour of the Balkan states. The arrangement is in the interest of Catholic Austria. It will have the effect of strengthening Bulgarian autonomy and the Balkan elements as against Russia. Thus Austria will be rendered less dependent upon Germany. To such a consolidation of the Bulgars under an Austrian prince Russia must seriously object.

M. Numa Gilly Refuses to Fight.

PARIS, Nov. 26.—M. Numa Gilly refuses to fight M. Raynal, or any other gentleman mentioned in his book. He will only meet them in the law courts. The budget committee met Friday to decide how to meet the attack. It was decided that M. Rouvier should demand permission to defend himself before the chamber, and that the others should be given an opportunity to speak. Gen. Boulanger denies that he has had any communication with Gilly.

The Reichstag's President.

BERLIN, Nov. 26.—Herr Von Levitzow, Conservative, has been elected president of the Reichstag, by a vote of 271 out of a total of 281 ballots recorded. Nine ballots were blank. Dr. Von Buhl, Nationalist, was re-elected first vice president, by 169 out of 259 votes recorded, and Baron Von Uarunne-Bomst, second vice president, by 150 out of 244. All three gentlemen accepted the posts. Emperor William's speech in the Reichstag has had little effect in Vienna. The Paris papers have not commented on the speech as yet, but the general impression is favorable. Herr Von Richter, in the Freisinnige Zeitung, comments upon the unusual religious references in the speech.

Foreign Notes.

Gladstone will go to Italy next month.

The whole Cuban press cries out against the tax on all estates, drinkables and fuel. Herr Von Levitzow is the new president of the Reichstag. Dr. Von Buhl first and Baron Von Uarunne-Bomst second vice president.

Opposition journals charge the French government with the intention to provoke a conflict at the demonstration at the grave of Baudin, on December 2.

After a long discussion in Berlin it was resolved that an Emin relief expedition be attempted as soon as possible by the nearest route. The relief fund now amounts to $89,000.

The correspondent of the China Mail states that an uprising has taken place in Formosa on account of the registration and remeasurement of the rice and sugar districts in the south and west of the island. The district is much disturbed, and bands are plundering people on the roads.

THE BOSTON.

She Returns to New York With Yellow Fever on Board—Four Deaths.

NEW YORK, Nov. 26.—The new United States war ship Boston has arrived here on her way from Port-au-Prince. When off quarantine she displayed the dreaded yellow flag from her foretop. Dr. Smith, the quarantine health officer, with a corps of doctors, soon boarded her, and remained on the vessel over an hour. When he returned the doctor was very reticent, and refused to say what was the matter.

The United Press representative, however, began an investigation on his own account, and by persistent inquiries he learned that yellow fever had broken out among the Boston's crew within the harbor of Port-au-Prince, whether she had been sent when the Haytian government seized the American steamer Haytian Republic on her return voyage.

It was also learned beyond doubt that four men had succumbed to the terrible disease. The names of the victims are: John J. Kelly, an apprentice, died November 20; E. T. Trapp, an apprentice, died on November 20; John Uzeman, a marine, died November 21; Joan Putzel, a marine, died November 22.

The Boston is manned by a crew of 3,600 men all told, including officers, seamen, apprentices and marines. All communications with the plague stricken ship are cut off. No one is allowed to visit her except the health officer and his assistants.

The health authorities declare that they have not yet been able to officially declare that the disease is yellow fever and that when a full and exhaustive diagnosis is made statement will be issued. The bodies of the dead were buried at sea and as far as could be learned every effort was made by the commander of the Boston to prevent the spread of the disease to the ship's company.

Official Returns From New Mexico.

SANTA FE, N. M., Nov. 26.—The official returns show the election of Joseph, Democratic, to congress, over Otero, Republican, by 1,730 majority. The legislature stands as follows: House, Republicans, 15; Democrats, 9; Council, Republicans, 7; Democrats, 4; Independent, 1.

A Pipe Line Bursted.

WABASH, Ind., Nov. 26.—The big oil pipe line which runs from Lima to Chicago burst Friday at a point twelve miles north of this city, and a vast quantity of the oil escaped before the break could be stopped. The fluid found its way to a stream and was ignited in its course, making a great conflagration, which threatened neighboring property.

Shot by His Mistress.

KNIGHTSTOWN, Ind., Nov. 26.—Dick Scott, colored, has been intimate with Lizzie Archibald, a low white woman, for some time. They had a quarrel, when she drew a .38 caliber revolver and fired two shots into him. One ball struck him near the heart, the other through the bowels. After the shooting she gave herself up.

An explosion took place in the stone quarries near Fairview, Ky., hurling Charles Combs, white, and Jake Brown, and Bill Tandy, colored, against a stone wall at some distance, inflicting serious injuries. Morgan Christian, white, had an eye blown out and a hand torn off.

Mrs. Harrison, wife of the president-elect, receives many letters begging her to use her influence to procure appointments, but all such go into the waste basket and are not answered. She says she is not in politics, and, besides, she is not disposed to use her influence to procure appointments.

The Next Congress.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 26.—Senator Hawley said that he had not the least doubt that the Republicans had the house, but that he expected, or rather feared, that the Democrats would steal it. The situation will remain unchanged until the certificates are issued. The most serious aspect of the affair arises upon the possibility of the Democrats having a majority of one or three. It is believed that, feeling as they do now, the Republicans will not permit the Democrats to organize the next house without resistance. There is even talk of withdrawing and perfecting an organization of their own under the circumstances. Many Democrats, however, are disposed to regard it as to their advantage to be in the minority, and are especially opposed to any further resistance to the admission of new states into the Union.

WHEN IN THE WEST.

When in the west the day is slowly dying,
And in the pines the evening winds are sighing,
Then on my soul come wildly, swiftly thronging
Thoughts full of strange, unutterable longing.
Ah! with you sun, I would be ever roaming,
Would ride o'er oceans where the seas are foaming,
Would look on mountains with their snowtips gleaming,
And pass o'er cities all with people teeming;
Then, then indeed some work I should be doing,
With you, bright sun, the life in all renewing,
Why thus in waiting should my years be wasting,
While thousand thousands to their work are hastening?
Ah, say—to one reposé, alas! e'en hating,
Can there be bought so hard as simply waiting?
—E. T. In The Churchman.

An Exhibition of Cheek.

There was an exhibition of cold, stony cheek in a gambling house in Chicago one night a couple of years ago that has rarely been equaled and never excelled. Two gamblers stood on Clark street one night discussing the situation. One of them was penniless. The other had a leaden dollar. He was bemoaning the fact that he couldn't dispose of it anywhere. He had tried all sorts of devices to get rid of it, but it stuck to him like a brother.

"Give it to me," said the other. "I'll go up and play it in. Maybe they will overlook it."

He went into Hankin's house. The dealer gave him checks for the "ringer" without noticing its character. The gambler played along. He had wonderful luck. He won $208 in a few minutes. When he cashed in the dealer paid him the bad dollar with the rest. The gambler pushed it back.

"I don't want that," he said; "it's bad."

The dealer was so staggered that he didn't speak, and the lucky but ungrateful gambler walked out without waiting for a good dollar.

Sailing Up the St. Lawrence.

Such is the nature of the river that ships often spend more time in sailing up the St. Lawrence than in crossing the Atlantic; generally they require eight or nine days to beat up the Quebec from Bic, 140 miles; they can sail only during the flood, five hours, and then must anchor, unless the wind changes. The clumsy coasting schooners, requiring always a fair wind, sometimes spend a month in going sixty or eighty miles. With so many dangers as I have set forth, the reader might think that the St. Lawrence is not navigable; but, thanks to an efficient system of lighting and piloting, these waters are one of the great commercial arteries of the continent; they are frequented during six months of the year by several lines of transatlantic steamships, a fleet of Norwegian barkers for timber, and a limited number of coasting steamers and schooners. C. H. Farnham in Harper's Magazine.

Laura Schirmer Still Lives.

BOSTON, Nov. 26.—Beautiful Laura Schirmer is expected to be with her friends in Boston again by Christmas. Her charms are said to be undiminished, and her voice is as fine as ever. It will be remembered that the story came from Milan, not long ago, that she had been slain with poisoned cream in the sultan's seraglio. The chief cause of her misfortunes was her ill-advised marriage with Tenor Byron. It is said that she was responsible for the poisoning story.

A Wife Murderer Hanged.

SHAWNEETOWN, Ill., Nov. 26.—George W. Millikin was hanged here Friday for the murder of his wife. Millikin protested to the last that he was not guilty, but he had nothing whatever to say publicly, and died with his lips moving in prayer.

FINANCE AND COMMERCE.

NEW YORK.—Money 2 per cent. Exchange steady; governments steady.

Currency sixes, 121 1/2; four coupons, 128 1/2 bid; fours-and-a-half, 108 1/2 bid.

The stock market this morning was active and irregular. At the opening prices were firm and 1/2 to 3/4 per cent. higher, and during the first half hour on a good buying of some of the leading stocks this advance was further increased 1/2 to 3/4 per cent., making the total advance over yesterday's closing prices of 1/2 to 1/4 per cent. The advance had hardly been established when a raid was made on New York & New England which carried its prices down from 43 1/2 to 40 1/2 before 11:30. This unsettled the whole market and all of the early advance was lost in most cases and the market closed at noon 1/2 to 1/4 below the bottom figure of the day. The bank statement made public about 1:45, and which made a remarkable exhibit, showing an increase of $20,000 in the reserves and no offset on the market. The sales for the day amounted to $6,088.
